DEADLINE EXTENDED FOR PROPOSALS FOR MOGAN CULTURAL CENTER SPRING 2002 EXHIBITION

“THE PEOPLE OF LOWELL: PAST AND PRESENT”

Under the auspices of Lowell National Historical Park and the University of Massachusetts Lowell, the Patrick J. Mogan Cultural Center Community Committee is seeking proposals for a temporary exhibition that will explore the rich history and diversity of Lowell's people. Funding is available for this exhibition with the amount to be based on the quality and creativity of the proposals. The Mogan Cultural Center Community Committee will evaluate all proposals and select the most outstanding one. Proposals must be postmarked by January 11, 2002 (extended from December 19, 2001). The Committee will notify the selected applicant by February 1, 2002. The exhibition is to open in May 2002 and close in December 2002, with associated programming occurring in the intervening months. For information about the exhibition project and the proposal process, please contact:
